Competition Rules

Competition in three categories:

- Female
- Male
- Cordee (pair)

Competitors register in pairs (cordee). A competition fee is 15 EUR/competitor.

Spurs are not permitted, gloves and helmet are obligatory.

Competitors are climbing on their own responsibility and they take care of their own safety.
(using their own rope, quickdraws and belay device)

All quickdraws and anchors in route must be clipped.

- A - Lead: on sight / flash
B - Lead: second try (redpoint)
C - Top rope 1st attempt
D - Top rope 2nd attempt

Each competitor has two attempts in each route. There is no difference between on sight and flash at his competition.

Six best routes count for a final ranking.

In case of fall a competitor should immediately be safely descended to the ground. After the fall additional attempts (moves) are not permitted.

Top rope climbing is permitted only in routes max D7.

In case of tie at the 1st place a superfinal will be held.
